

i wanna know

oh i wanna know
whats in your dreams and in between
oh i wanna know
do you feel the way i do
oh i wanna know
what's in your heart
the light and dark
oh i wanna know
oh i wanna know

and oh i wanna know why people play the games they play when all they wanna know is do you feel the way they do
oh i wanna know
what do you feel when i am with you

oh i wanna know oh i wanna know sometimes these times seem so perfect sometimes my heart feels so pure

sometimes these lies sing so sweetly
i never know not so sure not so sure

oh what a day
today
no other day
oh all the time takes just one day makes
oh nah nah nah
today

oh i wanna know
what's in your dreams and in between and
oh i wanna know
do you say just how you feel
oh i wanna know
what's in your heart
the light and dark

crazy
sometimes my heart feels so pure
sometimes the truth
shines so brightly

that's when you know
know for sure

today
no other day
oo all the time takes

oo na na na
today
