

world of judgement

they judge you by your sex
skin
hair your clothes your house your car what you play and if you win

they judge you if you wear a tie they judge you if you don't
job your music your credit cards what you say and what you won't you may or not agree

i think it's very clear we gotta help each other live and do our judging at the mirror
'cause everyone wants justice it's true without a doubt but until the judge is judged that jury's out

tell you that you live in sin they judge you if you're gay or straight or bi or you don't say they judge you if you do or if you don't believe in your version of god what you sing and how you pray

we gotta help each other live and do our judging at the mirror
that's true without a doubt
the jury's out
